

---

The Washington Times
www.washingtontimes.com

---

Sailing into the celebration
Published July 8, 2005

---

The onboard TV was removed to make way for a second bar but celebrants on the former All except the crowds and heat, that is.
Because, for $1,750 a couple, the Willard Inter-Continental had offered a gourme
Once onboard, the doyenne of good taste and diplomacy spent time waving at passi
The package was about as exclusive as it gets since the 81-year-old, 104-foot Se
"This is a highlight of my life being here," volunteered Lee Lockwood, a pharmac
One marked a table where President Nixon and Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev si
Another noted that doorknobs in the master stateroom were changed to accommodate
-- Ann Geracimos

Copyright © 2005 News World Communications, Inc. All rights reserved.

---

Return to the article

Click Here For Commercial Reprints and Permissions
Copyright © 2005 News World Communications, Inc.